AMAVEN

Measure • Track • Improve

CAPH member offer

Amaven has partnered with CAPH to offer Cornish schools a free trial of Amaven. The schools will work with Amaven health mentors to run one PE assessment day per term.

Schools receive:

- ✓ On-demand pupil, class and school reports
- ✓ A login for each teacher to access online resources
- ✓ A substantial library of curriculum-appropriate PE lesson plans
- ✓ A personalised profile for every pupil
- ✓ Parental engagement via the platform

Amaven is a unique online system designed to help schools demonstrate the impact of their PE practice and to help children master the fundamental movement skills necessary for to embed a healthy and active life.

We are working nationally and locally to help primary schools evidence the impact of not only the school, but every individual pupil within the school. We have developed a unique approach to this by taking away all the extra work piled on teachers by providing a professional impact report which can be loaded up to the school's website or emailed to parents, governors and shown to OFSTED inspectors.

After each seminar school leaders will have the opportunity to receive bespoke coaching, support and challenge from a NLE who has already led their own school to world class status.

Through reviews of research, inputs from outstanding practitioners, discussions, deep reflection and coaching opportunities, leaders have the opportunity to consider the context of their school in relation to the focus of the day and plan their next steps on the their journey to being a great school.
