

Education is too important to be taken seriously!

An event for school administrators

Thursday 21st April 2016

The Headland Hotel, Newquay, TR7 1EW

The recently relaunched Cornwall Association of Primary School Administrators (formerly CAPSS) will be holding its first conference this April, offering some inspirational thinking from 'stand-up' educationalist Dave Keeling, a marketplace showcasing some innovative products and services for schools and a chance to meet up with colleagues from schools across the County.

Dave Keeling is a stand-up comic who's been in both Coronation Street and Eastenders. He has been working with Independent Thinking for many years bringing the best out of some of the UK's naughtiest young people as well as opening up school staff to the power of laughter in education. More information about Dave is available at www.independentthinking.co.uk/people/associates-j-p/dave-keeling.aspx.

- | | |
|---------|---|
| 8.30am | Registration, tea and coffee, visit the Marketplace |
| 9.20am | Welcome from the CAPSA Committee |
| 9.30am | Dave Keeling – Session 1 risk taking, curiosity and how to create flow |
| 10.30am | Refreshments and the Marketplace |
| 11.00am | Dave Keeling – Session 2 'Your Brain is better than you think' the Anatomical and physiological sculpting of minds. |
| 12.30pm | Lunch and visit the Marketplace |
| 13.45pm | Dave Keeling – Session 3 The power of laughter and humour as a learning tool for change in the 21st century |
| 15.15pm | Closing remarks and last chance to visit the Marketplace |

2 free places are available to all schools, book via Michelle Renowden michelle@caph.org.uk; 01726 212892. Space at the venue is limited, so book early to secure your place. If additional places are needed, contact Michelle to discuss.