

Education Effectiveness Training Opportunities for Schools

Training and support for refugee education, English as an Additional Language (EAL), equality, diversity and inclusion, and trauma-informed practice are available for schools across Cornwall. All support is tailored to individual school needs and provides practical strategies that can be embedded across the whole school community.

Bell Foundation Training

Adaptive Teaching for Learners using English as an Additional Language (EAL): Learn how to adapt teaching in a responsive way to meet the language development needs of pupils who use EAL alongside curriculum learning. Includes practical, easy-to-use strategies for supporting multilingual learners while maintaining high expectations

Primary Schools (Teams, 3.30pm-5.30pm)

- 18 Nov 2026
- 20 Jan 2027
- 8 Jun 2027

Secondary Schools (Teams, 3.30pm-5.30pm)

- 9 Nov 2026

EAL Co-ordinators: Leading EAL in Your School: Designed for practitioners leading EAL provision in their school.

Participants will explore their roles and responsibilities, review key aspects of EAL provision, including policy, admissions, inclusion, assessment and tracking, and reflect on practice within their own school. The course also focuses on embedding EAL across the school through collaboration with colleagues, engagement with families and communities, inclusive cultures, and effective teaching and learning.

- 19 January 2027, 9.30am-3.30pm, Victoria Conference Centre (lunch and refreshments included)

Please book the above training by searching for EAL on the training tab on Services for Schools Online

Training and Support Available from Cornwall Council

EAL Provision Whole-School Evaluation: A comprehensive evaluation of EAL provision with recommendations and improvement priorities as outcomes. This is a highly collaborative process that includes a 1-day visit by the practitioner.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Audit: A comprehensive review of policies, practice and culture with practical action planning. The audit identifies strengths and highlights areas for development in support of compliance with the Equality Act 2010 and Public Sector Equality Duty.

EDI Training: Thought-provoking tailored sessions covering cultural humility, inclusive curriculum, representation, unconscious bias, microaggressions and challenging conversations. Can be co-ordinated with a school audit.

Healing Classrooms Training: Delivered by a certified Healing Classrooms Champion, this training teaches trauma-informed practice to support refugee, asylum-seeking, and vulnerable pupils and to meet safeguarding responsibilities.

Schools of Sanctuary Award Support: Guidance and resources to help schools become recognised Schools of Sanctuary. Build on existing strengths and create an even more welcoming, inclusive and compassionate environment for all pupils and families.

Why Take Part?
