

Teacher Development Reforms and OneCornwall Teaching School Hub Partnership

Have you had your letter from Minister Gibb?

This week the Education Minister has written to every school to update them on the Teacher Development reforms ahead of the national rollout from September 2021.

The OneCornwall Teaching School Hub Partnership has been set up to support schools and school leaders to navigate through these reforms, offering high quality evidence-based training for your teachers. They are ready to talk you through how to access funded face-to-face and online professional development.

Early Career Framework

If you have appointed an ECT (NQT) for September, you will need to plan for their two-year statutory induction.

The OneCornwall Teaching School Hub Partnership can deliver this statutory reform for you, fully funded, through their programme. Contact us now for further information and details about our forthcoming ECF Webinar event on 15th June 2021, 4-5 pm. Please email hello@onecornwall.co.uk to register your attendance and receive the webinar links.

The reformed NPQs

OneCornwall are offering NPQs in partnership with Teach First and LSSW. Please look out for dates for our NPQ webinars and if you have any questions, please get in touch via email at hello@onecornwall.co.uk
