

Online support for primary RE in Cornwall: implementing the new agreed syllabus

Cornwall SACRE is offering a series of online training sessions, delivered by Lat Blaylock and Stephen Pett from RE Today. These will help teachers to implement the new Cornwall agreed syllabus, using a range of classroom activities to illustrate how to put the syllabus into practice.

- Sign up for two webinars, at times that suit you from the following list (you do not need to do them both on the same day).
- Each live webinar will cost £30 per school (and can be used for staff or department CPD).
- Choose your dates and register on the Zoom links below.
- Your school will be invoiced after the event.

Primary training: implementing the new RE syllabus for 4-11s with Lat Blaylock
Webinar A: Teaching and learning in Primary RE Practical strategies for excellent teaching and learning in RE with the new syllabus. This webinar includes an overview of the programme of study in the RE syllabus, and illustrates its pedagogy with inspiring examples of good learning for pupils aged 4-11.	Webinar B: RE – intent, implementation, impact. RE for progress and success. This webinar introduces the statutory outcomes for RE from the new syllabus and explores with clear examples the ways in which the programmes of study enable pupils to make progress towards the outcomes for 7, 9 and 11-year olds. Practical examples will be provided across the age range.
