

Is your curriculum broad, rich and exciting?

Do you make learning accessible, challenging and irresistible?

Have you got resilient and successful learners?

The Roseland Cluster have arranged an exciting day of training led by Mick Waters and would like to open it up to other schools. The day will be an opportunity to consider your curriculum; alongside what really matters in learning and how we can help children to learn.

Date: Monday 8th October 2018

Time: 9:00am - 3:30pm

Venue: Royal Cornwall Showground

Cost: £60 per delegate (includes refreshments and lunch)

Please email karen.middlemore@iaspire.net to book a place. When booking please provide a contact email for the invoice and any dietary requirements.

Booking is open until Friday 21st September 2018

Professor Mick Waters is an Education Consultant who works across the UK on innovative approaches to learning. Mick has worked as Director of Curriculum for QCA, taking a leading role in helping schools to rethink their approach to curriculum design and influencing national policy on aspects of the national curriculum. Mick believes that learning should be treasured and valued and that it needs to be shaped to fit with children's lives.
