

Understanding Christianity

A two-day training course and resource pack for teachers of Religious Education

Dates: Friday 3rd May 2019 & Wednesday 10th July 2019

Time: from 9.30am to 3.30pm

Venue: Sands Resort & Spa, Newquay TR7 3LX

What is the course?

- Understanding Christianity offers a clear, coherent approach to teaching and learning about Christianity in Religious Education, for pupils aged from four to 14.
- It is based around a selection of core Christian concepts and structured across the age range to support pupils as they learn and deepen their understanding.
- The accompanying pack is full of creative, challenging, and practical ideas and resources for teaching RE to all ages.

The course is led by Ed Pawson from Exeter Diocese.

Cost: £175 per delegate, to include both days of training, the resource pack, refreshments and lunches. £100 for additional delegates from the same school.

Details and booking: To find out more or to book a place please email Deborah Stainer, Education Support Officer deborah.stainer@truro.anglican.org by 25th April 2019.

