

“Taking the Next Steps – Am I Good Enough?” Women into Senior Leadership 2020

This course is about you – you as a leader, your strengths, potential and the plans you have for your career and your life.

In this programme you will have:

Time for self-evaluation and guided reflection

- Time to consider the face of senior leadership and headship
- Time to reflect upon different scenarios
- Time with experienced female senior leaders to mentor and guide

In addition to the training days, you will have the chance to visit schools with female heads. You will have time to observe, discuss and reflect.

The course will be:

- Inspirational – allowing opportunities to meet female role models
- Practical – looking at what is required to be a successful senior leader
- Balanced – acknowledging work, life and many conflicting demands

22 nd January	4pm – 6pm	A twilight session to introduce the course and meet those leading it, along with your fellow participants, Truro College
26 th February	9am – 4pm	An introduction to coaching with time for personal evaluation and reflection upon the role of leadership, Truro College
27 th Feb – 13 th March		School visits to take place
19 th – 20 th March	Residential	At The Sands Resort, Newquay
22 nd April	4pm – 6pm	A final twilight session, Truro College

Cost £130 plus VAT to include overnight stay during the residential and a copy of the Myers Briggs booklet.

Please contact Emma Williams - emmawil@truro-penwith.ac.uk - for an application form which must be submitted before 10th January 2020.

We believe this course will prove to be a foundational experience for a future generation of female leaders, allowing them access to role models as well as structured opportunities to explore and learn about the world of senior leadership. We welcome applications from any women teachers in positions of leadership, from both primary and secondary phases.

*Please note that this project has been funded in the past by the DFE specifically to encourage more women and is therefore gender specific.
Please note that this course does not carry outside accreditation.*