Gain confidence in teaching multiplication and division with small groups

Develop subject knowledge and work with colleagues in a supportive group

This group will focus on 20 intervention lessons to support pupils in their understanding of multiplication and division

You will

- Learn in a supportive environment
- Be trained in delivering 20 high quality interventions to support pupils who lack confidence
- Be trained in the effective use of manipulatives
- Discuss modern teaching and learning needs
- Foster an enjoyment of maths for all

Josh Lury is a well known figure in maths education having written many resources, training packages and CPD materials. He is the Deputy Lead of CODE Maths Hub.
